Distinctive Practice of the ASM-CSIT Global Exposure

- According to, Amit Dasgupta, Inaugural India Country Director, UNSW (The University of South Wales), Australia
- “The development of transportation and telecommunication has diminished physical distances across the globe and blurred the boundaries among nations. An increasing number of governments, corporations, and individuals (students/professionals) have started making connections with one another, regardless of their nationality”.
He also says, “With the world converging towards globalization, there is greater scope to widen opportunities in education, especially for students. As a result, today's students have higher chances of implementing practices in the global arena and learn learning the know-how of different countries. Cross-cultural references and a global perspective allow students to have a pragmatic view of international industries.”

Objective

- To acquaint students with global knowledge.
- To achieve personality and attitude enhancement.
- To provide cross-culture exposure
- To build up strong networking for future growth.

Foreign collaboration

- Signing ceremony of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between CETYS Universidad, Mexico & ASM Group of Institutes, Pune, India, held at 'Incon – XIII 2018' International Conference organized on 12 & 13 Jan 2018. Dr. Sandeep Pachpande (Chairman, ASM Group) & Dr. Scott Venezia (Dean, CETYS Universidad) signed the MOU on behalf of their respective organizations.
- The partnership & collaboration between ASM Group & CETYS Universidad started in year 2007 and this is the 3rd MOU signed between both.
- This MOU commits us to work together more closely towards our common goal, the pursuit of the internationalization of education. Each side will pursue many significant activities, such as the promotion of educational and academic exchange between organizations, educational institutions and individuals; the promotion of study opportunities, assistance to support study and educational opportunities, to those seeking information and scholarships, seminars, workshops and conferences in the area of education.

In the pursuit of excellence and perfection, ASM Group of Institutes, Pune has been recognised with the 'Icons of Learning' Award by Business Excellence & Research Group (BERG), Singapore. The award was presented to Dr Sandeep Pachpande, chairman of ASM Group on 9th November 2017 at the 4th Icons of Learning Summit & Awards, Singapore. Speaking at the event Dr Sandeep acknowledged the challenge of changing education streams and courses for preparing a future workforce. He also stated that "we have collaborated with Harvard Business School, for the HBX CORE program, for our students to learn from global programs and be prepared for future jobs in India and worldwide". Here are a few glimpses of the grand ceremony.

At the ASM GROUP of the Institute students can develop their subject knowledge along with foreign exposure to the topic.

We also have to visit faculty from different corner of the World like Italy, Nepal, New Zealand, US , Maxico, Poland etc

Students charmed by achievers' stories

ST CORRESPONDENT
smr@studnet.com

Proud students were motivated hearing the personal experience of real heroes who have achieved milestones in their respective fields.

These personalities addressed the students during a programme, 'Heroes for Change' organised by Young Engineers Network (YEN) at Anandipada, Shiksha Mandali College of Commerce, Science and IT at Chhatrapati, on Wednesday.

Guest speaker Anand Bansode, International level orienter Anil Ghoshale, rising entrepreneurs and former students of ASM College Shiksha, Durbhan Partner of Purush Dandekar, IT expert Dipak Shikharpe and E-waste management expert Manoj Mehat addressed the students. The secretary of ASM Group Asha Pachgale and Chairman of ASM group Sanjay Pachgale were also present.

Anand Bansode said, "I used to be a work as a child, both physically and academically. My parents and teachers didn't have any hope in me. I failed in 10th and 12th, which was a turning point for me. I decided that I will achieve something big as that narrow one track road. Next year, I stood first in the class."

According to him, he became the first Indian to climb four highest peaks in the world out of seven and got the national award in 2012.

"I want to climb all seven peaks in the world. I all ways have a positive attitude and refuse to get attention to myself," he said.

International level orienter Anil Ghoshale said that as a child, she faced water and during her trial days of water being training, she used to return from the pool without swimming. "But somehow, I managed to overcome the fear of water. Thereafter, swimming became my passion. After winning many medals at the national level, I am now concentrating on 2020 Olympics," Anil added.

IT expert Shikharpe said that the need of the hour is skill based education. "There is a difference between information, knowledge and skill. Our education system gives emphasis on overwriting information and neglecting it during the examination. Our education system is unable to produce manpower required by the industry," he added.

Young entrepreneurs Shikharpe made a presentation about his new startup which manufactures innovative well placed that have multi purpose use

STUDENTSPEAK

The speech of Anand Bansode was very inspiring. If one has dream and dedication, nothing is impossible in life. It was a learning experience about overcoming the odds in one's life.

—KRISHNA PATRA

The incident that Durbhan Parmar narrated was indeed an eye opener of how one can reach their goal and become a successful businesswoman.

—RAJNAX SHERIN

Studying only for getting job is not enough and this is the message of this programme. One should get into a position through which they can also provide jobs for others.

Cultural Exposure

- Foreign students bring to our shores a fresh and diverse perspective. It is essential to learn from their outlook and understand how their countries face global challenges and handle business solutions.
- Wisdom knows no borders and hence it becomes necessary to try and imbibe successful business practices, especially those that are latent in an evolving market like India. The exchange of information is both enlightening and mutually beneficial.
