The Institutional Strategic/Perspective plan is effectively deployed

ASM's College of Commerce, Science, and Information Technology in Pimpri -18 has consistently exhibited comprehensive development and growth since its establishment 24 years ago. This progress has been made possible through meticulous planning and continuous deployment by the various departments within the college. The sustained development and growth achieved are attributed to the effective execution of proper strategies.

The institution actively formulates short-term and long-term goals and objectives for academic growth and development, ensuring their realization through various committees and cells. The strategic plans, thus formulated, are designed to actualize both academic and administrative development within the institution.
