Report on Diwali Celebration 2022

Diwali is a Hindu festival celebrated every year as a festival of lights. It is very significant festival for the people of Hindu religion. Everyone becomes very happy on the occurrence of this festival and celebrates with lots of preparations. Diwali is a five days long festival begins from Dhanteras and ends at Bhai dooj. It falls every year on fifteenth day of the Kartik month.

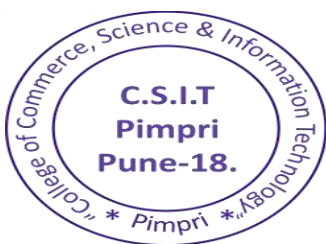

People start cleaning their houses few days before the main date of Diwali such as white washing, dusting, painting, etc. Houses get decorated using real or artificial flowers and other decorative materials. Everywhere looks very dazzling because of the lighting small earthen lamps and electric bulbs. It is considered that Goddess Lakshmi makes a visit to each house in the night of Diwali that's why everyone lights their houses to welcome the Goddess. In return, Goddess gives her blessings to their devotees for healthy and prosperous life. At this day, everyone performs puja of Goddess Lakshmi and God Ganesha and then distributes gifts and sweets to their friends, neighbors and relatives.

At ASM's CSIT, puja of Goddess Lakhmi was performed by Secretary ASM's Group Dr. Asha Pachpande on the occasion of Diwali. Ganesh Chaturthi 2019

Every year, the Ganesh Visarjan ceremony is conducted at IBMR Campus following traditional rituals and procedures. This festival, also referred to as Vinayaka Chaturthi, honors the Hindu deity Ganesha. It spans ten days, commencing on the fourth day of the Hindu luni-solar calendar month Bhadrapada, typically occurring in the Gregorian months of August or September. Throughout this period, clay idols of Ganesha are either installed privately in homes or publicly on elaborate pandals, temporary stages. Observances include the chanting of Vedic hymns and Hindu texts such as the Ganapati Upanishad, prayers, and virata (fasting). Offerings and prasada from daily prayers, including sweets like modaka, believed to be a favorite of the elephant-headed deity, are distributed from the pandal to the community. The festival culminates on the tenth day, during which the idol is carried in a public procession accompanied by music and group chanting, before being immersed in a nearby water body such as a river or ocean. This act symbolizes the dissolution of the clay idol, signifying Ganesha's return to Mount Kailasha to reunite with Parvati and Shiva.
