The Induction Program was organized to welcome and orient the newly admitted students of all Computer Science and Commerce streams respectively, at ASM CSIT College, Pimpri, Pune. The program aimed to familiarize students with the institutional culture, academic regulations, support systems, and future opportunities available to them.

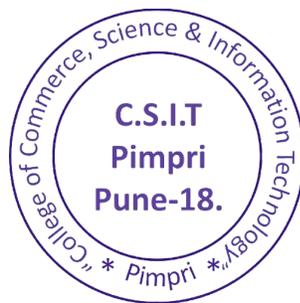

Objectives:

- 1 To introduce students to the vision, mission, and values of the institution.
- 2 To create a sense of belonging and community.
- 3 To motivate students for a fruitful academic journey.
- 4 To provide an overview of the academic curriculum and extracurricular activities.
- 5 To Provide information about the mandatory schemes and academic profiles.

Detailed Report:

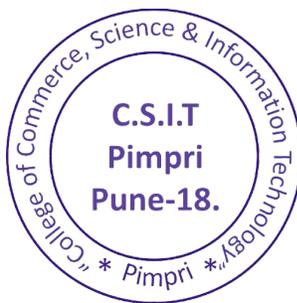

Induction Program – Day 1 Synoptically Report

The Induction Program commenced on a promising note at 09:30 AM with student registration, efficiently handled by the college staff under the coordination of Ms. Rashmi Ambike and her team. The inaugural session began at 10:15 AM with Saraswati Pujan and the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, graced by the management and invited dignitaries. This was followed by the felicitation of guests, anchored by Asst. Prof. Purna Shinde. At 10:45 AM, Dr. Lalit Kanore delivered the welcome address, articulating the institution's vision and mission, and emphasized the need for a strong academic foundation and adaptability in the evolving professional landscape. Dr. V. P. Pawar, in his brief yet impactful speech, spoke on balancing distractions and attractions in student life, highlighting the importance of time management and self-responsibility. Following this, Dr. D. D. Balsaraf delivered a motivational talk based on personal experiences, encouraging students to overcome fear, stay grounded, and work consistently with ethics. Dr. Sudhakar Bokephode reinforced the value of discipline, determination, and dedication, presenting graduation as a journey of character building. The day's keynote industry interaction session featured Mr. Saurabh Shah from Krafton India, who shared valuable life and career insights, including his "5P Mantra" – Passion, Practice, Patience, Proactivity, and People. He offered reflections on emotional resilience, competition, self-growth, and networking. A vote of thanks for the morning session was presented by Asst. Prof. Amruta Joshi.

Post-lunch sessions began with an awareness program on PoSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) by Ms. Kavita Jain, who elaborated on student safety, legal protocols, and compliance through real-life illustrations. Asst. Prof. Sonia Roy offered a vote of thanks for the session. This was followed by an orientation on anti-ragging guidelines, jointly delivered by Asst. Prof. Savitri Mandhare and Asst. Prof. Dnyanesh Mandale, focusing on preventive measures, student duties, and grievance redressal mechanisms. Subsequently, Asst. Prof. Chaitanya Hanote introduced students to the ABC ID (Academic Bank of Credits), emphasizing its benefits in maintaining academic records and enabling academic flexibility. Dr. Vikas Vidhate and the Admission Team then hosted an interactive session on campus life, featuring student testimonials and highlighting the cultural, academic, and extracurricular vibrancy of the institution. The final vote of thanks for the day was delivered once again by Asst. Prof. Sonia Roy, followed by feedback form submission coordinated efficiently by the Registration Committee, thus concluding a highly engaging and informative Day 1 of the Induction Program.

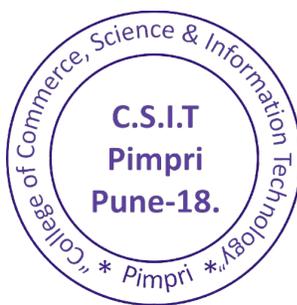

Induction Program – Day 2 Synoptically Report :

Day 2 of the Induction Program began at 10:00 AM with the formal felicitation of guests, coordinated by Asst. Prof. Amruta Joshi, setting a respectful and welcoming tone for the day. This was followed by an enlightening Sahaj Yoga and Meditation session led by Mr. Karan Khair and Mr. Dhanesh Paradkar. The session emphasized the significance of mental well-being, emotional balance, and introduced students to simple yet effective meditative techniques to enhance focus and inner peace. At 10:50 AM, Ms. Komal Jain conducted an insightful orientation on Skill Development, underlining the critical role of soft skills, employability readiness, and the importance of aligning with the dynamic demands of today's job market. A vote of thanks for the morning sessions was delivered by Asst. Prof. Purna Shinde.

Subsequently, Dr. C. D. Sonawane, Vice Principal (Computer Science), introduced the Computer Science Department and its faculty, elaborating on the academic structure, department vision, and expectations from students. This was followed by the introduction of the Commerce & Management Department by Asst. Prof. Sarita Goyal, who provided an overview of the department's teaching methodologies and its industry-aligned curriculum. Mrs. Mahadevi Shelke then presented a session on the various Scholarship Schemes available, detailing eligibility, documentation, and the application procedure, thereby encouraging students to avail financial support opportunities.

Asst. Prof. Sachin Thorat and Asst. Prof. Rashmi Ambike jointly conducted an orientation on NSS activities, the Green Army Club, and the process of College Club formation, inspiring students to engage in social and environmental initiatives. Further, Asst. Prof. Pratiksha Ingle introduced the Young Inspirations Network (YIN), encouraging students to participate in leadership activities and socially responsible projects. The next session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Shreekant Mahajan, who briefed students about the Student Welfare Office (SWO), its support functions, and various student-centered programs aimed at enhancing their college experience.

The day concluded with a guided College Campus Visit, thoughtfully organized by Mr. Parmeshwar Laghane and his team, offering students a tour of essential facilities, academic departments, and resources across the campus. Finally, feedback forms were submitted under the coordination of the Registration Committee, formally concluding the Day 2 proceedings of the Induction Program on a well-organized and enriching note.
