Date	: 11 Jan 2025
Time	: 10.00 AM – 02.00 PM.
Venue	: Library Reading Hall
Collaboration (If any)	: -
Coordinator	: Library Department.

Introduction:

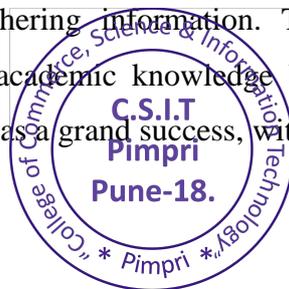

The Book Exhibition was a one day event held at CSIT Library Reading Hall. The exhibition aimed to promote reading culture, bring together book enthusiasts, publishers, authors, and educational institutions. It provided an opportunity for visitors to explore a wide range of books, meet authors, and engage in discussions on the latest trends in the literary world.

Objectives:

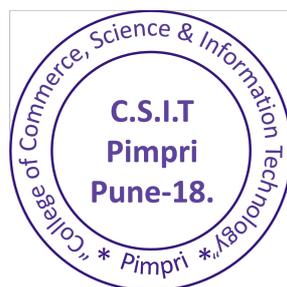

- 1 To promote literature and the habit of reading among the public.
- 2 To showcase a diverse collection of books across genres, including fiction, non-fiction, academic, children’s literature, and more.
- 3 To create a platform for authors to engage with their readers and sign copies of their works.
- 4 To offer opportunities for publishers, bookstores, and educational institutions to network and expand their reach.
- 5 To organize workshops, panel discussions, and interactive sessions for book lovers and literary enthusiasts.

Detailed Report:

The exhibition was officially inaugurated by Prof. Pawan Sharma and Principal Dr. Lalit Kanore. Vice Principal Dr.C.D.Sonawane, Vice Principal Prof. Sarita Goyal dignitaries expressed their appreciation for the initiative, highlighting the importance of reading in enhancing students' knowledge and academic growth. The inauguration ceremony was attended by all college faculty members, who were keen to support the event and interact with students. The event was meticulously organized by Librarian Swati More and Assistant Librarian Bhushan Jadhav. Their efforts ensured the exhibition ran smoothly, with books displayed across various genres, including academic, literature, fiction, and reference materials, providing something for everyone. The exhibition attracted a large number of students, who showed great enthusiasm in exploring the books and gathering information. The event not only offered students an opportunity to enhance their academic knowledge but also encouraged recreational reading. Overall, the Book Exhibition was a grand success, with students and faculty members expressing satisfaction with the initiative. It proved to be an enriching experience for everyone involved, further enhancing the role of the library as a center of knowledge and learning.

Outcomes:

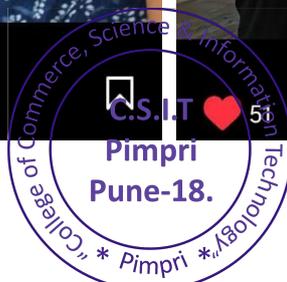

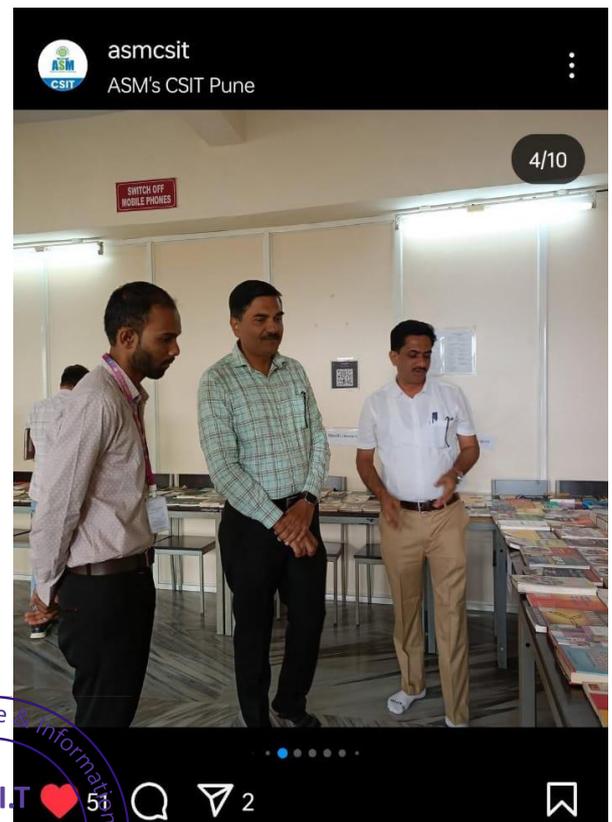

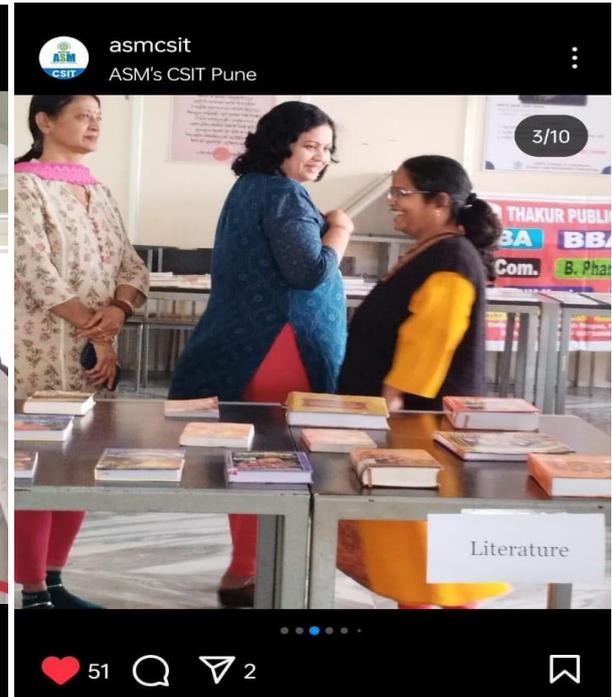

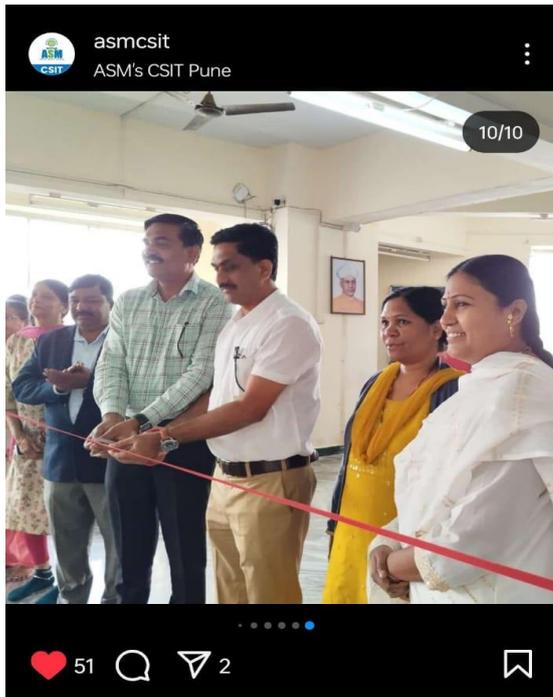

- 1 The exhibition successfully raised awareness about the importance of reading and literature across all age groups. Visitors expressed a renewed interest in books, and many reported purchasing books they had never considered before.
- 2 The event led to a noticeable increase in book sales for many exhibitors. Discounts, bundles, and exclusive editions helped attract buyers, contributing to a positive economic outcome for publishers, authors, and bookstores present at the event.
- 3 The exhibition facilitated valuable networking opportunities for authors, publishers, and literary agents, fostering future collaborations and partnerships.
- 4 Authors were able to engage directly with their readers, gaining insights into their audience's preferences and feedback on their works. This interaction created a stronger bond between authors and their readers.
