Report on “Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi & Lal Bahadur Shastri ”

Date	: 03/10/2024
Time	: 11.00 am onwards
Venue	: Main Auditorium
Collaboration	: -
Coordinator	: Cultural & NSS Department.

Introduction:

The birth anniversaries of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, two of India's most respected leaders, are celebrated every year on October 2. This day is marked with reverence, patriotism, and a call to imbibe the values of non-violence, peace, and simplicity that these great leaders stood for. The day is observed as a national holiday in India and holds immense historical significance.

Objectives:

- 1 To promote non-violence and peace at national and global levels.
- 2 To reiterate the importance of sanitation and cleanliness in daily life.
- 3 To strengthen communal harmony and unity in India through religious tolerance.
- 4 To honour the contributions of soldiers and farmers, who Shastri believed were the backbone of the country.
- 5 To encourage simplicity, humility, and patriotism in public life.

Detailed Report: (With Geo-tagged Photographs)

The event commenced with the lighting of a ceremonial lamp by distinguished guests Dr. C. D. Sonawane (Vice Principal, Science), Asst. Prof. Sarita Goyal (Vice Principal, Commerce & Management), Dr. Vikas Barbate (Dean of IPS), Asst. Prof. Priya Janjalkar (NSS Coordinator) and Asst. Prof. Sarika Shinde (CEO, CSIT). This day is marked with reverence, patriotism, and a call to imbibe the values of non-violence, peace, and simplicity that these great leaders stood for. This was followed by the felicitation of the special guests.

Dr. Vikas Barbate shared valuable insights on the significance of Gandhi Jayanti and Shastri Jayanti, emphasizing the enduring relevance of the principles these two leaders stood for. Dr. Barbate urged the audience to embrace the values of simplicity, dedication, and integrity exemplified by both leaders, and to apply them in their personal and professional lives for a stronger, more peaceful society.

Ms. Devyani Jangam, a student of SYBBA, delivered a compelling speech on the importance of Gandhi Jayanti and Shastri Jayanti, reflecting on the profound influence these leaders had on shaping modern India.

The documentary provided a visual journey through the lives of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, showcasing key moments in India's history. It highlighted:

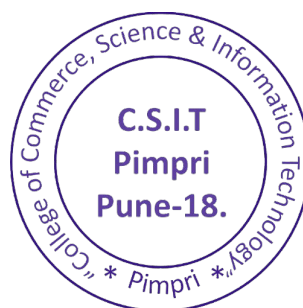

- Gandhi's role in the freedom movement, his emphasis on truth, non-violence, and the significance of the Dandi March and Quit India Movement.

- Shastri's leadership during the 1965 Indo-Pak war, his Green Revolution efforts to enhance food security, and his enduring message of "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan."

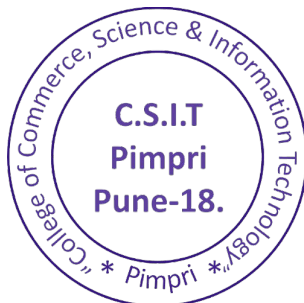

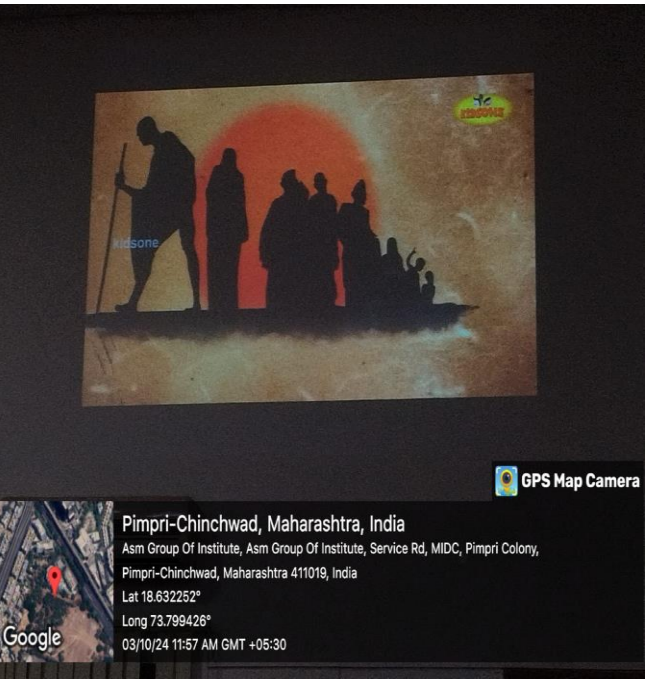

The documentary helped students reflect on how both leaders not only contributed to India's independence and development but also left behind timeless ideals that continue to inspire future generations. This visual representation aimed to foster a deeper connection with their values and motivate students to apply them in everyday life.

The celebration concluded with a formal vote of thanks, where the organizers expressed gratitude to all the participants, speakers, and students for their active involvement in the program. Special thanks were extended to the faculty members for their support in organizing the event. Following the vote of thanks, the event ended on a patriotic note with the singing of the National Anthem, uniting everyone in a spirit of respect and pride for the nation. This final act reinforced the values of national unity and dedication to the country, reflecting the ideals of both Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri.
